If your tooth hurts, you have my sympathy--and you've come to the right place. Maybe you're lucky and the dentist has an available slot this afternoon so you won't have to be in pain for long. Or maybe you're like most of us. The toothache came on over the weekend or during the middle of a winter storm. And somehow you've got to make it until you can get in to see the dentist in a few days. Well, stroll on into your kitchen and open up your cupboard or refrigerator. You'll find something inside that will help you get by until your dentist appointment and you won't have to leave home or spend any money to do it. These are just some of the common kitchen items you can use to relieve your toothache pain: *Discover how oatmeal can be used for much more than a breakfast cereal *Spice up your mouth for some fast pain relief *Cool off your mouth with a cucumber *Use your baking supplies without heating up the oven. *Warm up your tea for soothing pain relief The clickable Table of Contents makes it a snap to find the ingredient you want to try and each ingredient has step by step instructions so you'll know exactly how to use it.
