This Is Far More Than Just A How-To Guide - The Complete Info-Product Creation Toolkit Actually Provides MANY Premium Resources (Worth $19.95, $39, $49.97...etc) That You Can Download And Use To Take Your Info-Product Creation & Marketing Ability Into Expert Status! Dear Internet Friend, There are several good, legitimate ways of making a lot of money online (and sadly a lot of scams too) - very few however can stack up to the profitability of creating and selling your very own high profit information products. Why? Because info-products have absolutely exploded over the last couple of years and while there is profit to be made reselling ready made eBooks, the bulk of the cash goes to the producers of the info-product. Today you're going to find out exactly why creating high-value info-products from scratch, and selling them to a hungry audience is not nearly as difficult as it may seem - IF you have the right know-how, software and resources at your disposal. So what kind of profits can be made with your own info-products? Well, there are authors out there who have made as much as $15,000 within a month with a relatively easy-to-produce eBook. Of course I'm not suggesting that you're going to make the same kind of return with your very first try, but with the high-power strategies that you'll discover within this toolkit you have every chance of being highly successful. Before starting I want to point out one thing - The Complete Info-Product Creation Toolkit is far more than just a "How To" guide - it's a complete resource that shows you, step by step, how to think up high-demand information products, create them from scratch and then market them the right way. Each of these steps are really crucial to your success with info-products. Above all, the toolkit comes with several highly valuable built-in resources that you can download from inside - premium eBooks & software that you absolutely must have in order to produce & market information products successfully. These resources would cost you a small fortune if you were to purchase them separately. That's what separates this all-inclusive toolkit from the other "How To Create Info-Products" books out there. You see, most "how-to create information products" eBooks have affiliate links to the same/similar products that you're getting with the toolkit for free, so you have to purchase them separately (giving the authors back-end commissions and leaving you somewhat out of pocket). There is simply nothing out there that competes with The Complete Info-Product Creation Toolkit if you're

The Toolkit's Secret Weapons - No Less Than Eight Premium eBooks & Software That Every Info-Product Creator Simply Must-Have! There are one or two decent how to create info-product books out there - most of them tell you how to create an information-product and then point their affiliate links to further software and tools that you need. The result? You end up spending a good $250 or more buying up these additional products to actually create your information product. With The Complete Info-Product Creation Toolkit you'll also get instant access to no less than eight premium resources (software and eBooks) that are absolutely essential for every information-product creator. These resources would cost you an absolute fortune if you purchased them individually (and eventually you probably would) but they are ready for instant download from inside the toolkit. You simply will not get this from any other "how to create info-products" resource out there - period! Let's take a brief look at each of these eight premium resources: Info-Product Toolkit Premium Resource One - How To Create Perfect PDF Files For FREE With Just A Few Clicks Of The Mouse. As you may already be aware, the preferred choice of formats for your information products is PDF. There are several reasons why PDFs are so popular they can be read from any PC or MAC anywhere in the world, they have a very neat look and they are very easy to create. Aside from this they are secure and your document will look the same in PDF as it did in your Word document al the characters/fonts and even graphics are actually embedded into the created PDF file so there are no further adjustments that you need to make. So its not surprising that they have taken the info-product world by storm. The downside to using PDF? It can be very expensive to get a copy of the Adobe Writer software (a couple of hundred dollars actually). With the PDF Creator included in the toolkit you can create perfect PDF files within a couple of minutes. But the best thing is that the PDF Creator also has some very advanced features for info-product creators. It can: Include graphics/charts and other pictures or multimedia. Link to other websites or emails. Create PDF navigation bookmarks. Password protect your PDF file and even disable the copy/text function to stop illegal theft of your work. Secure sign your document using your digital certificate. Customise the info-product you create with page numbers and so on. Rotate pages of a document (very useful if you use Powerpoint or Excel to create your info-product). Merge several different documents into one PDF file. You can do all of this for FREE. You'll also discover the following: How to upload your info-product to your website. How to set-up download links. This resource is an absolute must-have for any information product creator. But also included inside The Complete Info-Product Creation Toolkit is The Self Publishers Knowledge Base - these are Amazon best sellers that take you through every single step involved with info-product publishing. Again, you do not have to pay a single extra penny for all of this...it's all waiting for you inside The Complete Info-Product Creation Toolkit. Info-Product Toolkit Premium Resource Two - A Cover Graphics Creator. Your info-product should have a professional-looking cover and with the ICG graphics creator you'll be able to create info-product graphics from scratch.
