For ADVANCED BEGINNERS and INTERMEDIATE players. A video tutorial focused on the harmonica intro from Slim Harpo's Louisiana swamp-blues, "I Got Love If You Want It." Transcribed and adapted by Adam Gussow of Satan and Adam. Slim Harpo often falls through the cracks when players talk about important blues harmonica players of the postwar era, but he had a distinctive approach that has influenced many contemporary players, including Kim Wilson, James Harman, and guitarist Kenny Neal. Technical challenges are modest and include 2 and 3 draw bends, tongue blocking (optional), and some tricky timing. This lesson pays particularly close attention to that timing, in an effort to help players develop a more sophisticated rhythmic concept. Harp key: B-flat Note: a PDF tab for this lesson is also available. Running time: 28:47 Another Modern Blues Harmonica production (modernbluesharmonica.com)
