We are going back to more traditional Christmas giving for a number of reasons. There is nothing like giving something special and unique for a Christmas gift or for any occasion. The Gift Jar is a wonderful idea! The requirements are a quart jar, large or small mouth opening, wide mouth is best. Besides a quart jar with lids, you will need a large rubber band. A piece of material 8x8 square. Ribbon to decorate. After filling the jars, place the material on the lid and put the rubber band around it to secure it in place. Tie with decorative ribbon and tie the recipe card to the ribbon for the directions on how to bake the ingredients. Now to fill those jars... This ebook contains lots of recipes and ideas for you to make some spectacular gift jars, you'll also have lots of fun doing it.
