When They Come Back To Your Page The Offer Is Gone, Price Are Raised Or No Special Bonuses. Last month I did a bit of testing with a new "exit page script" on a few select offers. After trying the script out a bit I decided to ask a few of the other marketers I know what they thought and most of them agreed it was a BIG hit. Adversely, one of the more interesting messages I got back got was.... "Hey Jeff, This is a GREAT script! However, I'm curious about one thing. Why not just offer the special price right up front? This way if they go to leave the website they lose out on the discount offer or bonus and in the meantime there's no annoying pop-up, pop-over or pop-under to worry about, which quite honestly I believe would increase sales." You'll be able to set the new One Time Offer Script up to run on ANY PAGE without needing to purchase expensive software or learning any fancy html, css or php programming languages. All you'll need to do is open the sales page in your favorite text editor to add a small section of code to the website page and upload your changes along with the other 2 files to display your special offer. With this new script you can easily set up your own front end specials, upsells, downsells and more. Don't Forget The Free Master Resale Rights Tags: oto
