Proxy Website Cretion 101 With Rights

Your Privacy While Creating A Proxy Website And Flipping It A For Profit!" One of the leading causes of people being fired from work today is internet abuse. Most companies have very subjective language in their handbooks about internet abuse - so much to the point that you do not really know that you have abused the internet until you get called on the carpet about it and possibly lose your job. People are losing their jobs over being on MySpace and Facebook at work all the time. Perhaps you are one of those people who wants to access blocked sites from work or wants to set up a business so that others, too, can access websites that may be blocked from public places, schools, the library and their job. If so, you can make some money if you learn how to set up a proxy website. Setting up a proxy website is not as difficult as you think it is to do. It can give you access to any site online from anywhere, even if it is blocked. Most offices are blocking sites like MySpace because they do not want their employees to waste time. It can be very frustrating for an individual to have to try to get a message to someone on a social network and have the site blocked. If you can learn how to set up a proxy website, you can set one up for yourself or for others to use as well and charge handsomely for this service. Most people are willing to pay hundreds of dollars just to have the luxury of being able to browse the internet anonymously through a proxy website. And you can be the one charging to help them do this! You can help people access blocked sites! No longer do people have to be blocked from certain websites or have their identities known as well as where they go online. It is really no one's business what you choose to view online no matter where you are. What if someone is at work and knows that the company is about to be laying people off? Don't they have a right to be able to look for a job online? They can't at most companies because all job sites are off limits. If they access a proxy website, however, that you set up, they can go anywhere they want online without anyone knowing. And you can charge them for the service as soon as you learn how to set up a proxy website. Proxy Website Creation 101 Once you learn how to set up a proxy website, you can charge others to access your website and then use it to browse the internet while they are at work or other public places where certain sites may be blocked. There are people who will pay handsomely for that service. You can also use the proxy website for you own good and use it to browse the internet anonymously without worrying about someone tracking you down. You have a right to go where you want online when you want to and by using a proxy website you can exercise that right. Once you read this book, you will know everything that you need to know about how to set up a proxy website and get it ready for use. Then you can decide if you want to use the site for your own use or for the use of others. Either way, once you set up a proxy website, you will be able to enjoy surfing the net without a care in the world. No longer do you have to be treated like a little kid at work or anywhere else and be blocked from going onto sites online. Once you learn how to set up a proxy website, you will enjoy free reign of the internet no matter where you happen to be. And you can let your friends use the site as well, or even charge people to use it. It is easy and fun!
