Announcing an important message for golfers... "Give Me Just 10 Minutes of Your Time and I'll Show You How to Walk onto Any Course, at Any Time, With Anyone Watching---and Play the Best, Most Relaxing Round of Your Life With Total Confidence, Authority, and Flair and it Doesn't Matter if You've Played a Round of Miniature Golf or on the PGA Tour!" Attention: If that got your attention, read on. This may be the most important letter you've ever read! From: TRACY YATES Date: Friday, November 03, 2006 Dear Fellow Golfer, Don't you just hate it? The idea of stepping onto that first tee with everyone watching as you pull out your driver for another attempt at hitting that ever-shrinking fairway. It's natural to feel uncomfortable. Is your stance correct? Is the ball up---or is it supposed to be back---in your stance? Keep your head down... Knees bent Back straight---not too straight not too tight a grip---not too loose, you don't want to lose control of that club head and all this while your foursome, and the foursome behind you, watch to see who they're up against and how long they'll be waiting on you to play ahead of them. Well, don't worry. You're not alone. Many pro golfers, low handicappers, executives, politicians and celebrities dread these same situations. You Will Master Any Course, Anytime, Under Any Circumstance. Many of these high-profile golfers are among the most stressed and nervous golfers on the planet. Despite their low scores and outward confidence they often confess to their coaches and trainers that stepping onto the course with a new foursome, or old pals for that matter, makes them more than a little uneasy. But if they knew about this website, they too could be confident polished golfers that are the envy of their group just like you'll be very soon. You should never underestimate the power of a great golf game. The prestige and contacts you can develop because of a great golf game is unbelievable. Not to mention the incredible self-confidence you'll feel. But what it takes to develop a great golf game may not be what you think. What Does it Take to be an Effortless Golfer? It's long been noted that the secret to a great golf game is not driving, it's not iron-play, it's not chipping and it's not putting. So what's left? It's all about your confidence. Have you ever noticed that the pros on TV routinely miss the fairway? In fact if you were watching the 2006 U.S. Open, then you know exactly what I'm talking about. Phil Mickelson - winner of BOTH previous majors in 2006 - had a horrible Sunday. He missed 16 of 18 fairways---yet he had a two-shot LEAD going into the final two holes. How is this possible? Effortless Golf! Phil, and all great golfers, know one thing, there's nothing he can do about the last shot or the next shot. He can only control this shot. And that's what makes a great golfer---an Effortless Golfer. But, you know what happened Phil got greedy--- or maybe stupid we can't be completely sure--- and did start to think about the next shot, lost his focus and ended up losing the U.S. Open. The most successful golfers---regardless of score and skill level---are those golfers that play the game confidently, effortlessly and with a subtle flair. You Can Reap The Rewards of Effortless Golf. Have you ever said to yourself, I wish I could swing like that, or How does she putt so smoothly? or I should've kept my head down? If so, you're not alone. But there is a solution for your game. Golf Secrets Uncovered, a brand new audio product, is the answer you've been searching for. No gadgets to wear, no crazy exercises, no contraptions. Just quick, easy, effortless golf. Just by listening, you'll master the skills and attitude needed to deal with any course, anytime under any circumstance. The result? You'll get more invites to play golf.
