Success by Lord Beaverbrook A classical and real book of power. Written by Lord Beaverbrook, here is a piece of this magnificent jewel: Like all human affairs, success is partly a matter of predestination and partly of free will. You cannot make the genius, but you can either improve or destroy it, and most men and women possess the assets which can be turned into success. But those who possess the precious gifts will have both to hoard and to expand them. What are the qualities which make for success? The contents of this volume originally appeared as weekly articles by Lord Beaverbrook in the Sunday Express. They aroused so much interest, and so many applications were received for copies of the various articles, that it was decided to have them collected and printed in volume form. NOW IN AUDIO!
