"How to Tap into and CONTROL the 2 largest Mines of Traffic in the World with Speed, Precision and Push Button Automation" Discover the amazing story of how a 21 year old Kid with Bad English systematically beat search engine giants for traffic, rankings and easy commissions with the secret weapon he built underground... If you've ever dreamed of getting flood after flood of FREE search engine and social media traffic to any niche, product or affiliate link with Foolproof ease, blinding speed and near total automation, then this quick presentation is the most important you will ever watch. Here's why: 6 months ago, I built a website in the internet marketing niche. I personally invested tens of thousands of dollars in content, staff, link building, tools and everything else that goes into building a massive authority business. Everything was going dandy until one day, a new competitor popped onto the scene. Now competition was nothing new, it's only that we were used to unceremoniously crushing everything that came our way without a second thought. But this was different. Where we had quickly come to rank for dozens of highly profitable keyword phrases, including many gurus names and huge product launches on the day they went live, now this pesky site was not only holding its own, it was beating us. Now, I have made millions online. I have trained over 40,000 affiliates, vendors and search engine profiteers... Spoken on many international stages in front of hundreds of people... Not only do I have resources, financial and otherwise to make things happen, but most importantly, I absolutely HATE to lose. Perhaps a bit childish, but It drives me mad, makes me sick and quite literally keeps me up at night. That's why when that site started not just showing up on our turf, but actually pushing us to the sidelines like second rate actors, I was pissed OFF and ready to take decisive action. In other words... "I Was Ready to Squash him like a BUG!" It was time for action. I called a staff meeting with my top people... unfastened the purse strings and took out greedy chunks of cash to use for winning the war... To the 2 linkbuilders and content writers we already had, I added 3 more. We invested in every link network sold online and bought every tool available. We double checked everything we'd done and scoured thousands of pages of SEO material, looking for anything more we could be doing that we weren't already. And then everything was in place: highly trained and dedicated staff, state of the art software, hundreds of dollars a month renting links from all those services... All told, I was investing just over $10,000 a month... Let me explain: Rankbuilder has several features, all of created to get your content out to as many worthwhile places as possible while grabbing unique one way backlinks to your money pages. To do this, it creates: * Blogs on web 2.0 sites * Bookmarks on over 25 of the top properties * Profiles on some of the most heavy traffic websites in the world * Submits your (spun) articles to directories with your links * Creates advanced link wheels (a network of sites belonging to you which all point to your money pages) * Leverages the linkbooster function, which automatically creates links to your links and to the properties RankBuilder already created for you. This means hundreds or even thousands of links available at your finger tips, just a couple of button pushes away... Sure, you could do all that manually but it would take almost a week to do what RankBuilder can do in mere minutes. Consider the time and effort involved in creating just ONE web 2.0 site: 1) First you have to find the site and bring it up in your browser 2) Then you need to type in your desired account details and profile 3) Then you have to type in the CAPTCHA (insert image here) 4) Then you have to wait for the confirmation email and click the link 5) Then you need to login again, fill in the article and tags 6) Finally you click submit and now you have one article with your links pointing back to your money page Sure, it may take you only 5 minutes to do this, but even then, it's mind numbing zombie work that will have you going nuts in no time, and all that for just one link, imagine doing hundreds for every page you want to promote. And, if you wanted to do things right, you wouldn't even be done yet because you would have to build links to the new pages you created in order to increase their weight and value in the eyes of Google... It's not feasible, you would probably chuck your keyboard out the window after a few hours, and at best, your income and traffic would be extremely limited since you only have so many hours in a day... Now see how easy RankBuilder makes it: o RankBuilder comes loaded with hundreds of sites, just check the box for the ones you want to use for one particular round of submissions o 2) Set your username and password one time in the configuration panel: RankBuilder will now use this information to create as many properties as you want, without you having to type it in ever again o 3) RankBuilder automatically Busts the CAPTCHA, so again, if you are using the automated CAPTCHA breaker, you don't even need to be there while this happens o 4) RankBuilder CREATES throwaway email addresses for you, gets the confirmation email and clicks the link, totally hands free o 5) RankBuilder then logs into your new account, configures a version of your article and tags and clicks enter, meaning you now have a new site, complete with your unique content and links, and all you did was tell it where to post... o 6) Better yet, RankBuilder now captures the URL of the site it just created and automatically bookmarks it, pings it and submits its RSS feed to multiple directories while you either sit and watch or do something else entirely: the whole process is automated! AND, Rankbuilder remembers the sites it created and the logins, so you can just select a new article and tell it to do it again by pushing the button.
