After I take you through a quick overview of how to use the remarkable Sales Letter Creator, I will also ensure that you are equipped and able to take every step that comes after. By providing the relevant information that you will need, this is made simple and fast. No doubt you'll wonder what you ever did without this powerful sales letter generator, and that is just the beginning. Dear Internet Marketer, Everybody knows that a compelling sales letter is the key to a successful Internet business. Without a sales letter that swoons your reader and persuades them to buy, you're pretty much doomed to cyber poverty forever, and I mean that literally. That's how important it is to have an effective sales letter. The Problem With Writing Sales Letters... For marketers who hate to write, spending hours putting together sales letters from scratch is torture! The problem is that writing a sales letter is hard. It takes time and the copy needs to be great to get people to take action. Nothing stops sales dead in its tracks faster than poorly written sales letters. Your sales letter is your digital salesman and if it does a terrible job, you can say goodbye to any chances of you making even $1 online. Whether you want your website visitor to opt in to your newsletter or make a purchase, it all depends on how well your sales letter 'sells'. If you're like me then you probably dread the idea of starting out to create a new sales letter from scratch, or craft a web page to sell your product on the Internet. What Does The Lazy Marketer Do? Okay... so now we both know that you need a great sales letter on your website if you want to convert a great number of visitors into sales. You have 3 options: 1. - Hire a Professional Copywriter Professional copywriters are very expensive but in many cases this is the best option - if you can afford it! Copywriter fees vary from $497 to $25,000+. You're almost guaranteed a successful sales letter by hiring a top gun copywriter but if you're just starting out, the 5 figure price tag puts this option out of reach. 2. - Write Your Own Sales Letter From Scratch Unless you are a highly skilled copywriter, chances are that you'll end up creating a Frankenstein which doesn't convert. It's perhaps the cheapest option but if you're a terrible copywriter or hate writing, it won't be worth your time and effort. Not recommended at all. 3. - 'Cheat' With Push-Button Software You can legally cheat and create great looking sales letters every time by cleverly using software that makes it a breeze to put them together in literally minutes! Sales Letters Creator is the perfect example of this kind of software. You won't find a better quality application of its kind...especially one this affordable! Time is money, and anyway, no-one wants to strain their brain for hour after hour writing sales letters only to be disappointed by lousy conversions. As rare as it is to find something that does what it claims to do, I'm overjoyed with what this has done for me and my business. -Kevin Enos "The Sales Letter Creator Pro was a life saver for my business..." All I wish for is that everything I had ever bought was half as beneficial as the has been. Just when I was ready to give up on ever buying anything like this, I came across it and I'm so thankful that I did. Nothing, and I mean nothing since I've tried almost everything else, is even close to this in any regard. -Eric Kowalski "I guess number 87 is the charm?" After buying a grand total of 86 other products, and spending a lot of cash doing so, I didn't think that number 87 would really be all that different. Never have I been so thankful to be proven completely and totally wrong! Not only is the Sales Letter Creator Pro really a steal considering how expensive and/or low quality its competitors are, but it also beats them hands down in every single aspect. From features, execution, speed, and sheer potential, I wish I could turn back the clock and not waste any money on the other 86 products I bought. -Aoun Hussain "It doesn't just live up to the hype...the Sales Letter Creator Pro demolishes it!"
