Most magicians don't use flamethrowers or human blowtorches in their acts, but you can after reading this! The material in this book is dangerous and therefore for information purposes only. The Magical and Ritual Use of Herbs This book describes the historical use, chemical structure, preparation for consumption, and magical rituals of nineteen narcotic, hallucinogenic, stimulant, and depressant herbs-- including morning glory seeds, wild lettuce, damiana, sculllcap, and psilocybe mushrooms. The chemistry of each herb is examined to determine how it affects the conscious perception of reality.
