***** Well, what really is this Frank Kerns handwritten letter about? Well, I see it fit not to call it just as a letter but as a LETTER cum REPORT cum Your Direction Pointer in these recession days, that lays down Franks views, thinking process and helps us pick his brain that which made him the multi Millionaire Marketer. Well, if you even have the slightest of doubts on how much you can earn during these global recession days, this letter cum report of Kern is a must read. He starts his letter with something like this... He was flying to one of his meetings in first class and he noticed that everytime hes flown in the last 45 days on first class, its all been sold out. With a price tag of $2000 and 28 seats in first class why is the media always shouting theres no money. At $56,000 for just one flight in first class, someone has the money. and so he goes ... After all he is the guy who replied when asked, How much profit will YOU make in this recession? ...you have MORE opportunity now than EVER before -- Frank Kern All very valid points that any internet marketer should bear in his/her mind and I think this thought process(from the letter) of his is what made him the multi millionaire marketer This letter reinforced my millionaire mantra.. I only want to attract people that believe in no limits. I only want to attract people that dont make excuses but create opportunities. Im a believer in taking big action and creating big income. For me personally it was very refreshing and it made me very pepped up to earn more than what I have earned all these years, irrespective of recession. P.S. WARNING. The bonus read, Frank Kerns handwritten letter has a few 4-letter words in it ...and it has a (pretty funny) drawing of a bird finger on the cover. All in all, its cleaner than 99 of what youd see on T.V. but I figured youd appreciate the heads-up.
