Would you have less stress if you could wake up knowing that you had total control over your destiny and financial future? Would you like to set your own hours, pick your own projects and make your own rules? If the answer to one or all of these questions was "yes", then the letter below will be one of the most important that you ever read... The Bathrobe Professional Make More Money From Home Than You Ever Have At Your 9 To 5 Job! From: Your Name Here Date: Tuesday, February 9, 2010 Dear Friend, Before we go any further I want to say one thing... I (much like you I imagine) once worked a job that I hated. I'm talking about a job that made me not want to get up in the morning. Don't get me wrong, I'm not lazy or anything like that (well, maybe a little now that I work from home) but I just hated working more hours than I spent with my family. The pay was okay and the benefits were good but at the end of the day, I just didn't feel fulfilled or like what I was doing was making me a better person or bettering my family. Have you ever been there? Maybe you've worked a long shift and after you get off, you are too exhausted to spend any time with your friends or family. After dealing with this for a few months, I decided it was time for a change. And boy this change has made my life a true pleasure to live every day. I get up when I want, work when I want and best of all, I play when I want! I spend time with my family, I go on day trips and I pretty much do anything I want anytime I want! This probably all sounds good but first, we need to get something out of the way... I realize that... You've Had To Work Like A Dog 40 Or More Hours A Week At A Job You Hate Or Get Low Wages That Just Don't Cut It... You see, most people believe that the only way to get ahead financially is to work harder and longer hours. While this will make you more money than your standard 40 hours, it will also burn you out. And I'm here to tell you that you don't need to work those ridiculous amounts of hours in order to attain the income that you dream of. In fact, you don't even need to leave your home. Wouldn't you like to wake up every morning, go over to your computer and get your assignment for the day and be paid extremely well that same day? Does that sound like something that might interest you? I'm sure that telling that boss of yours to take his job and shove it would not only feel good, it would be darn right liberating, don't you agree? But how are you going to make all of this happen? What are you going to do? You Can Make A Killing Offering Your Services From Home Via The Internet And Never Even Have To Take Off Your Slippers! You see, there are loads of businesses online and offline that need people to do tasks for them, and they outsource loads of that work everyday to people like you and me. In the age of virtual offices run from home with no 9-5 employees, there are literally hundreds of tasks that online business owners need help with. This can be anything from typing up documents, transcribing, doing voice over work, web design or computer programming. Whatever skill you may have to offer, there are probably many people out there right now looking for someone just like you. The great thing about working online is that you get to set your own hours, work at your own pace and set your own rates for working. If the pay isn't what you want, you don't have to take the job. If they have a deadline you just don't want to rush to meet, you can pass on the project. The key here is that you have full freedom as to what you do and don't do giving you total control over your life, finances and freedom!
