But that isn't all. You have to fight or work together with other players to become the biggest metropolis there ever was. To do this you have to construct numerous types of buildings to fulfill citizens' needs in the areas of food, religion and numerous other areas is primarily how you'll accomplish this task. This way you can train your troops, fight and conquer the world. So take on the roles of Mayor and City Planner as you design and build an entire city in Freedom City! Choose a location to build your constructions, commercial, and industrial areas. Be prepared to deal with crime and attacks. And, while you manage your town, you'll have to keep a balanced budget and watch your resources. This way you can attract as many citizens as possible to your thriving new metropolis!
