Here are what others are saying about Mo Canada: While Mos great lead playing still retains the trademark Rice tone and touch, hes plowing his own field now with inventive lines and fluid, dynamic tunes. Mo Canada is moving down his own road now, finding his own muse, and its sure fun to hear the results. -Tim Stafford Canada has "touch." Theres a relaxed, comfortable feeling in even the fastest tunes. He doesnt overplay, doesnt even seem to wander out on a limb too far. Hes under control at all times. -Archie Warnock, Bluegrass Unlimited His playing serves to confirm the notion that bluegrass guitar will continue to flourish. -Tony Rice This mature work of art reflects the many years he has worked honing his skill. As a composer, he comes up with fresh music perfectly suited to his instrument and style. -Raymond McLain, Head of ETSU Bluegrass Dept. Mo's got one of the best tones I've heard in a long time. I'm impressed with his wonderfully mature sense of melody and groove. - Bryan Sutton Song List: Weaver's Bend Leap Frog White Rock Deputy Dalton Spring Has Sprung Brownee (Last Southern Belle) Fairview Goodbye Allison Chicken House Old Grey Coat Lonesome Ruben
