Curtis Cross, better known as Black Milk, is a hip hop producer and MC from Detroit, Michigan. In only a few years, producer/emcee Black Milk has quickly developed into one of the few hip hop artists who both carries an accomplished resume and is followed with widely-held optimism about what he can bring as one of the leaders of the modern hip hop movement. Now 25 years old, Black earned his stripes both locally in his native Detroit and on a national level from his associations with Slum Village. After getting his first production credit for "What is This" on SV's sophomore album "Trinity" in 2002, he produced much of the popular group's next two albums both individually and as part of the production team BR Gunna, with whom he also released the album "Dirty District, Vol. 2." It wasn't until his self-released debut solo album "Sound of the City" in 2005 did he begin to achieve some notoriety as an emcee, and it was off the strength of the album that he signed his first record deal with Fat Beats Records in 2006. His new album "Tronic" shows that Black has grown tremendously as a producer, as he's adopted more live instrumentation and is introducing more complex arrangement than his previous sample-heavy work. Not even two years removed from his breakthrough release, Black Milk proves on "Tronic" that not only is he growing as an artist, but that hip hop music as a genre still has room to grow. *20 Underground Cracking Snares *20 Heart Pumping Kick Drums *20 Hi-Hats (open and closed) *20 Shakers *10 Crash and Ride Cymbals *Plus Many Various Instrument Hits This is the bottom line right here! if YOU want your beats to have the exact same sound, impact and presence as Black Milk's then you need this kit right now! Accept no imitations...
