Hip-Hop Classic, the most haunting journey to Wu-Tang's darkest chambers as told by the illest lyricist alive 18 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hardcore Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: West Coast Rap Details: Warcloud Smugglin Booze In The Graveyard Smugglin' Booze from the Graveyard is the second of two now legendary "street tapes" that were intended originally to spread the word about the West Coast Wu's lyrical giant, Holocaust, by this time renamed Warcloud to galvanize a fanbase for his officially released albums that never actually happened. And so these compilations of earthshattering lyrical styles and tripped-out grimey beats became the only standing testimonials to the true greatness of this underground artist. Featured here alongside him are The Black Knights, Da Monstar Mob, ShoGun Assason and Juleunique. The producer and creator of most of this incredible music is none other than Skarekrow, of Monstar Mob. Rza, Shogun Assason, Cilvarings and 4th Disciple are also represented on some tracks. Included on this first time ever "official" release, is a bonus track of previously unreleased material featuring Da Monstar Mob with Warcloud. *** Audio remastering by G-Clef da Mad Komposa
