Glamour punk pioneers. Great melodies and riffs combined with kick ass beats. 14 MP3 Songs ROCK: Glam, ROCK: Punk Details: The Glamour Punk pioneers, Trashcan Darlings were formed in 1995 and are more alive and kicking than ever. Their records have recieved good responses from both the media and their ever increasing crowd of die-hard fans. In 2004 they released their EP "Tunes From The Trashcan" and fulfilled their fourth hugely successful tour of Europe. The "Cleaning Out The Cuntinent" tour, which was sponsored by aftershave pioneers Old Spice. In 2005 the first official DVD "10 Years Of Trash" was released. Included are nineteen tracks spanning the bands entire career so far with extensive interviews with all of the band and ex-members. One of the first Norwegian music DVDs to cut interview pieces between the songs, the DVD has gained rave reviews! A brand new album, two tours and more gigs than ever before are already planned for this year, so don't feel too safe. You'll never know what to expect at a Trashcan Darlings gig, except it's gonna be intense, crude, loud and fun in the way rock concerts should be... and always will be while the Trashcan Darlings are around to show people how to do it.
