How To Build A Fence is my new book that talks about my experience with fences. This is the best book on the market to teach you all about fences, why to get a fence, how to build a fence, hiring a professional etc. My book is called FEN 101 How to Build a Fence, I cover every aspect to fence building and throughout the book we target a shoestring budget. This is for those who dont want to drop a couple thousand dollars on a simple fence. Come take a look at what is inside with me. Inside the book I break up the topic of fences into many chapters, Chapter 1: Do I really need a fence? Chapter 2: Hire a Professional or Do It Yourself Job Chapter 3: What Type of Fence Should I Install (Fence Types) Chapter 4: Tools Needed to Get Started Chapter 5: Installing the Fence (The Specs) Chapter 6: Additional Good Books These chapters were designed to give you an easy read away from all the engineer talk. Below I will briefly explain what is inside each chapter. Do I really need a Fence? Obviously, this would be your first question involving fence building. We go over legal requirements in fences, as well as affordable requirements for you. Hire a Professional or Do it Yourself Job. This is the next obvious question in fences. In this section of the book we go over why or why not to use professional installers, for there can be many problems involved. We also introduce time management, this is when you need a certain project done in a certain amount of time. What type of Fence should I install? This is my favorite chapter of the book, because you get to read all about the many different types of fences. Inside we show you how to choose the most elegant, but most affordable solutions. Installing the Fence In this chapter you will learn the how to of installing your own fence, we go over this entire in depth concept in many basic steps giving you the knowledge of an expert in absolutely no time. Additional Good Books This section is where you can find out what other books there are on fence building, this is in the case that you want to learn more about a specific topic.
