Funky downtempo electronic music featuring flute. 5 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Down Tempo, ELECTRONIC: Funk Details: Born in Laurel Canyon, CA, I grew up in Los Angeles and Maui, Hawaii. I have a musical family - my dad Jim sang and played guitar in 60s psych-rock band The Glass Family and later became the recording engineer and mixer for Parliament-Funkadelic, working on many of their classic albums. When I lived in Maui with my mom, she always listened to Bob Marley. I was introduced to musical instruments when my brother Chris taught me to play the guitar. I decided to learn the flute after getting really into the wind instruments I heard in jazz and Latin music. I loved the organic and personal feeling of playing the flute. To help me improve my sound, I found a great flute teacher in the world-renowned flautist James Newton. Soon, the flute became my primary instrument and my passion. After many years of playing in bands and contributing to recording sessions, I have finally created my own funk flute inspired songs. My first-ever solo release, The Funky Flute EP (out on Black Ocean Music in June 2007) features 5 instrumentals: 4 originals and 1 cover. I recorded and produced all the music in my home studio. I always enjoy learning new instruments. I picked up keyboards a few years ago and my recent additions are melodica, mandolin, and tongue drum. Current Bands: Afrobeat Down (Fela Kuti covers and afrobeat originals) Black Shakespeare and The King Rockers (Reggae/Soul) Fredalba (L.A. based rock band) Recent Collaborations: Tom Burbank: Famous First Words (Planet Mu Records) Eygyptian Lover: Platinum Pyramids Omid: (OD/Beneath The Surface)
