Final Hour's music is hard rock with a melodic core. Our style is a blend of what is great about the sounds of the late 90's and today's hard rock. 12 MP3 Songs ROCK: Modern Rock, ROCK: Progressive Rock
Details: Massachusetts' heavy-hitting rock band - FINAL HOUR play a major role in the local music scene. The four members of FINAL HOUR that include Caleb Mayben (vocals), Dave Foster (bass), Rob White (drums), and Andy James (guitars) have breathed sonic fire into otherwise quiet suburban streets since FINAL HOUR's creation in late 2000. FINAL HOUR's music is full of energy with a variety of subtle shadings that keep the music fresh. FINAL HOUR refuses to be pigeonholed sonically, they also remain abstract lyrically preferring to express themselves more in a stream-of-consciousness fashion. The band never stops long enough to be pinned down, which keeps things interesting! FINAL HOUR's music is nothing short of a complete aural rush!!!
