Outstanding best seller Original Contemporary Native American flute music. With Guitar, synthesizer, ambient sounds. Beautiful music set to a journey of a Vision. A complete journey from beginning to end. with a lovely surprise ending. A beautiful CD. 13 MP3 Songs WORLD: Native American, NEW AGE: Contemporary Instrumental Details: Heartflight represents the human kind in thoughts, emotions and feelings that are playing out in the everyday drama of life's experiences. It is music from the heart, a social commentary put to music, a casual observation of one who experiences life. Heartflight is more than mere music. The words reach into your heart to trigger your thoughts and feelings to increase your awareness of the journey, your journey! As an adjunctive to the music, people can actually help save the planet, and each other. Heartflight is a dream come true after many years of dedication and the love of music. Mel began singing at age 8. He wrote his first song at 13 and won many talent shows in the early days with his brother Bill. They were an instant hit. Voices identical to the Everly Brothers won them many awards. They performed on their first television show in Cheyenne Wyoming, which led to many talent shows thereafter. They eventually joined an early band in LA called the Artesians located in the Southern California area. Later they both joined the Telstars also a Southern California band, which became a huge west coast success in the 1960's. Mel was the lead singer for that group, Bill backup singer. Later the brothers recorded with Johnny Hammond's jazz group, Mel as lead singer, Bill as a drummer. Mel eventually went solo and also sat in and played with several popular LA bands during that time as a lead singer. He eventually began his solo efforts building his own dream, a commercial recording studio. Heartflight recording studio, Heartflight original music, and Heartflight Productions were established in 1982. The Heartflight logo became a registered trademark in 1998 and the results since have been great new original music with Thought's of the Human Kind from the Heart, Wings of Change, Soul Journey, Smoke Rising, and the current released CD Visions of the Ten Moons (Spirits are Born). Anne Gordon joined Heartflight in 2000 as the exclusive visionary graphics art designer director. Mel wanted a graphic artist that could translate his visions, his music journeys into a visionary form for the eyes to see. Anne has consistently done just that. Check out her new graphics with Visions of Ten Moons (Spirits are Born)!

Yo Kohaji joined the team in 2002 as sales marketing assistant. Yo, Also assists Mel with all related Heartflight business. Heartflight has since developed a limited edition of high quality collectable merchandise also available exclusively on this web sites order page. Persistence paid off, his visions became reality. Success followed on the world wide Internet. Today, Heartflight has a huge fan base and those that consistently follow each new CD release. The music of Heartflight has now become of age. The music strikingly does speak to the cante -heart and even more so now completely relates to the here and now. An artist one must listen to, to truly appreciate. If you havent heard one of his CDs your missing out! Three years in the making, comes a new very different CD from Heartflight. The music can be sampled briefly on the music page. This is the vision behind the music. The vision represents NO religious affiliate; it is a Vision of a vision quest in Native American tradition. Visions of Ten Moons (Spirits are Born): Your Journey begins: HF 07 Youve purchased a new CD titled Visions of Ten Moons (Spirits are Born). You place the CD in the deck and suddenly, a mellow feeling comes upon you. Rhapsodies of flutes and the raw native sounds begin to take you on a journey through time and space. You begin gazing at the stars and seeking visions (hanblecas). You are seeking for new woksapa (wisdom). You find yourself drifting into the universe and becoming a part of the stars. Your journey, your vision begins! Your cante (heart) begins to beat slower, and slower, your nagi (spirit) begins to soar like an Eagle from your human form! Your mind begins to expand and open to the majestic beauty that surrounds you as your journey takes you far beyond the heavens of Ina Maka (mother earth). The heavens before you are vast and there seems no end to the universe you enter. Before you, lay an indescribable milky way of scattered twinkling bright colored stars. Detailed Visions now become more apparent. You have truly entered a new dimension. You are entering the spirit world. Visions now become of the minds eye, your human eyes no longer see the way. Your nagi -spirit becomes the journeys guide. Then suddenly, you enter another vast universe of milky stars with more intense colors and beauty. Nothing like you have ever witnessed in your human form, ever! You have now entered where spirits are born. Before you suspended in time and space, appears ten moons. Not ordinary moons, moons of new spirits within each. A spirit, taking human form within a transparent moon. It is the birth of new beginnings. Each moon represents a new spirit that will come to Ina Maka (mother earth) to assist in the changes that are yet to unfold. Each born spirit will become a guide. They will become a part of our universe soon. Your vision has spoken to your cante- (heart) and nagi (spirit). You seeked a vision, the vision unfolded. You gaze back at the distant planet you called home. Visions now more clear seems to show you another side of Ina Maka. Can you not see the destruction coming to Ina Maka? But being where you are, and knowing what you know, you realize the spirits will soon be born. They like those before them will guide all two leggeds (mankind) to a spiritual awareness like never known before. Then truly woksapa (wisdom) will be given to those that are no longer blind and see beyond the eyes mind. As the vision returns you to your human form (two legged) you begin the journey back to the here and now, you do not feel the same, you never will be the same again. The Great Spirit has touched you. Your true journey just begins! You gaze back over your shoulders as you re-enter your space and time. Your human eyes once again open to see the approach to your current times. The visionary journey of evolution has brought you back safely! Surprisingly! You gaze back to the heavens where you had been. Then you hear the laughter of children ringing through the universe; it pierces through your cante (heart) your nagi -soul. You know! Yes, you understand where the laughter comes from. You were given the visions of Ten Moons, a place where spirits are born. (Note: April 2007 a new planet was discovered in the universe. Does the Vision seem so unreal? I guess in time we may all know) ...07HF
