a cross between lounge, dance, and bossanova 13 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Lounge, POP: Quirky Details: I met Sergio on the beach one day when he was sunning with two sisters, Onita and Elis. They were having a party that night at Sergio's so they invited me and naturally I accepted. Sergio's place overlooked the Acapulco bay and had all those loud colors that were popular back in the sixties. Very James Bondish. There were lots of mini skirts and bouffant hairdos, and back in one corner of the room I heard some music so I made my way over there. The sisters were kind of swaying to the music which was a cross between lounge, dance, bossanova, and a little Tom Jones thrown in for good measure. That was it thirty years ago and here it is today.
