Details: Aldrine Guerrero has been entertaining audiences throughout Hawaii with his ukulele for more than 10 years. Born in Manila, he moved with his family to the island of Kauai in 1993 where he discovered and fell in love with the ukulele. Aldrine is currently featured on ukuleleunderground where his video lessons receive thousands of plays every week by ukulele enthusiasts all over the world. After performing and teaching professionally for over 14 years, Aldrine is finally releasing his debut album Suite 409. Suite 409, is a collection of songs written by Aldrine while living in an apartment in Waikiki. The album is an eclectic mix of 12 tracks that showcase Aldrines ukulele mastery. Bandito Tyler is an epic ukulele ballad while Cecila is a softer solo ukulele piece written for his Grandmother. Red Silky features the talents of up-and-coming artist Danyo Cummings and producer Ariki Foster. Schizophrenic Snowflakes shows both the bright and dark sides of the ukulele. Uke on a Stick was written when Aldrine was 16 years old and has become a mainstay in his live performances. CMJ, Loud Phrases From the Quiet Type, Ducky Adores Me, and Buttercup all demonstrate Aldrines laid back acoustic style. Suite 409 is the worlds introduction to one of the premier ukulele players in Aldrine Guererro. If you are a fan of the ukulele, this is an album you should not miss!
