A radio DJ in Germany sent me an email requesting a CD - he said that "This CD has AWESOME VOCALS!" - and I am talking to someone else in Sweden about radio airplay. I spent an entire year recording this CD and I think you'll agree with others who have bought it that it was worth the work! The Southern Medical Journal (circ. approx. 16,000) will use 8 of the instrumental tracks from the DesertSnow CD for the audio version of its monthly publication. Jennifer McKinney, Editorial Coordinator, had this to say: "I found your CD on CDBaby... and you're extremely talented! I know this music will work well with (the audio version of) our magazine." The Southern Medical Journal is published by Lippincott, Williams Wilkins of Baltimore, Maryland. I have been writing and recording music for 17 years. I really like New Age - Liz Story, George Winston, etc., and I have been told that my solo piano sounds alot like them. I also love Celtic music (esp. the high-energy dance music like Riverdance). I traveled with the Continental Singers out of LA and toured the Caribbean and southern US for an entire summer. After that I was in several bands in Colorado and Seattle and then started recording on my own.
