Internet phenomenon mathematics graduate students sing about what they love best... which may or may not be math. 14 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, EASY LISTENING: Love Songs Details: Klein Four is the premiere a cappella / variety group of the world of higher mathematics. Our first single, "Finite Simple Group (of Order Two)," hit the internet in May 2005 through collegehumor.com. Since then, Klein Four has launched a website, opened an online store with mathematics-related apparel and gifts, been interviewed for Math Horizons magazine, made the front page of the Daily Northwestern, been aired on German television, and all before we released our first CD "Musical Fruitcake." Visit kleinfourfor information on Klein Four and to purchase "Musical Fruitcake," which is also available via online music services such as iTunes, MusicMatch, Napster and many more!
