Details: Mute Albino is an individual project in which Stip Vanstiphout writes, composes, arranges original songs, and plays all instruments except drum and percussion (loops). He strives to be as analog/human sounding as possible. His songs are about life experiences his philosophy on love, employers, nice people, rebels, events from the past. Hence, the emotional (and sometimes sarcastic) in and output. All songs are purely Instrumental, progressive, experimental, and alternative. Its said of Mute Albino music, vocals are unnecessary as the music lends the mind a view of its own. Because instrumental progressive music is not as deliberate in its intention as music with words, its more adventurous to comprehend. The suggestion to use your imagination and let it flow, no matter what the intention or from where the ideas began, is obligatory. Early influences on Mute Albinos style are Frank Zappa, 70s British Progressive Rock ( Jethro Tull, Yes, early Genesis ), Steve Vai, Arabian music, Irish Folk Music, Avant Garde, Jazz.
