This is also a great CD for anyone who wants to feel empowered, energized and reconnected! A few words from Karen... "This is a compilation CD of all the healing chants and songs from my previous CDs. I was inspired to put this together after receiving so many requests from women going through cancer treatments and wanting music to help them through this process. I am particularly passionate about this CD since I would spend hours with my mother as she did her chemo treatments in a hospital, and I wanted to have something positive for her to listen to. I have been blessed that many people have told me they have played this CD in the operating room and that the doctors commented about how peaceful they all felt!"
