PPC IS DEAD. Start Making $13,000 A Month With StumbleUpon & The... What could you do with thousands of laser targeted leads that were delivered in just a couple hours, who fit the niche you select and were thirsty for more? Would you know what to do with them? Would you know how to cater to their exact needs and capitalize off them? I found out how to make tens of thousands of dollars a month with StumbleUpon and let me show you EXACTLY how. Let me tell you a story, I used to drop hundreds on AdWords. I would try new campaigns, low bids, different CPA offers. I would end up dropping quite a few hundred dollars on 1 campaign, maybe see 1 sale, get excited then spend a few hundred more, extensive time testing and monitoring and seeing poor results. All the while wasting more and more time and money with frustration constantly looming over my head. Then I tried something new. StumbleUpon Advertising. StumbleUpon has 20 million active users worldwide in over 200 categories, and when you advertise with them, you get your website inserted into the Stumblers experience. You dont set the bid price, you set the number of TARGETED visitors to receive. You can pick from Niches as broad as Mac Computers all the way down to Body Building, Natural Health, Badmiton, Drawing, Animals and so on. Not only can you pick the exact interest of your traffic, BUT YOU CAN SELECT DEMOGRAPHICS! Not just broad Google AdWord demographics like country or state, but Age group and Sex. So you want to drive 30-35 year old women to your CPA offer? Ill show you how Want to send 20-30 Year old males interested in Body Building to a Muscle Building CPA? Ill show you how Want to send young men interested in Dating tips (yes this is a category!) to your dating CPA offer? Ill show you how But its not like you can just send Stumble Traffic directly to your CPA offer, so I started experimenting and over the last year have perfected a variety of HIGHLY profitable methods.
