Puerto Rico...sometimes. Brazil...sometimes; sometimes New York. Always fresh. Smooth, sexy, with poignant lyrics enveloped in a soulful-folk caribbean lounge sound. 10 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Latin Jazz, FOLK: Modern Folk Details: Currently based between Puerto Rico and New York, this nomadic artist shows through her compositions an intimate portrait of the every day. Mima's debut self titled album reveals an aparent nakedness with songs like "Ojo avizor" or "Era aquello"; irreverent and playful "Santo camino furtivo" or spoken words on loungy "Mima", with a naivety full of shrewdness takes the listener on a winding road that sometimes seems misleading and not so transparent. There's a show of formality mixed with spontaneity on this first production effort that establishes itself as the beginning of a rich career. Joyce Negrn Take Out Magazine
