A symphonic and grand sound for classic hymns and gospel songs. 12 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Traditional Gospel, CLASSICAL: Traditional Details: Philip Webb is an American tenor who has received initial critical acclaim after launching his career in operatic and classical music in 1996. In 1987, Philip relocated to the Chicago area to lead the Worship and Music at Grace Church of DuPage in Warrenville, Illinois. In 1988 he recorded his second gospel CD, He Is King and was heard in churches all over the United States and Canada. In 1993, after nearly twelve years as a church music minister, Webb was encouraged by the renowned bass, Giorgio Tozzi, to pursue a career in opera. He immediately began an intensive program of studies and training, with one of the most renowned vocal teachers of her day, Margaret Harshaw, formerly of the Metropolitan Opera and the Indiana School of Music. Since that beginning program into opera, he has continued to study professionally and in 2001 he began a series of studies with the Internationally acclaimed "Verdian" tenor, Carlo Bergonzi. He has performed on the leading stages of the world, singing operas, oratorios and concerts with various symphonies. Philip's short career has encompassed a wide spectrum of roles and their interpretations, however, he is equally at home singing gospel music as that is where he first began singing. He and his wife Barbara have three children, who frequently travel together with him to his engagements. It is our prayer that these arrangements of timeless hymns and gospel songs, will prompt you in your own relationship with God and your worship of Him. To God be the Glory Psalm 115
