This witty, wonderful, thoughtful program of Cabaret songs is sung with style, character, heart and great energy! From Broadway ("But Alive/Applause", "Anyone Can Whistle", "Somewhere That's Green") to Folk ("The Choice", "Styrofoam") to Jazz ("Listen Here", "The Ballad of Pearly Sue") to Comedy ("Lime Jello, Marshmallow....") to thoughtful story songs like "Jonathan Wesley Oliver, Jr...Mary does it all! This album is sure to make you laugh, cry...and wonder why you've never heard of her before. "There's a little Liza Minnelli in Mary Keepers, a little Barbra Streisand and just a touch of Lily Tomlin's Edith Ann. She's a charming song-and-chat artist and a bit of an impish waif." - review, Minneapolis Star Tribune "Every moment of the record sparks segments of {Mary's} personality which leap out of the player and fill the room with all the emotion and observations {she} so easily expresses." - Stephen Bates, composer/music director "...a dynamite display of comedy and song by a wonderful performer." - review, Wisconsin newspaper "Mary Keepers has all the musical gifts in large proportions....wit, flair, strong jazzy voice....She's a strong singer. Her honest emotions help turn her rhythmic ballads and big crescendos into riveting occasions." - The Milwaukee Journal, review BIO: Minneapolis Cabaret Artist Mary Keepers has worked extensively throughout the Midwest as a singer, actor, director, theatre educator and designer for over 30 years. "Listen Here" is her first solo CD of cabaret songs! To find out more about Mary check out her website marykeepers.com
