An electric performer Matt has earned the reputation for creating tribal grooves, rich in rhythm and melody. It has been said on many occasions that Matt can play the didgeridoo like no other. He can turn the familiar drone of this instrument into a beautiful musical symphony of sounds that can soothe and warm the heart, and then thrill and excite the senses. Hearing is believing! Self taught he began playing the didge when he was given one for his 21st birthday, and virtually hasn't stopped since. His patience paid off when he mastered the circular breathing, through hours of practice. He soon began to add other instruments layer upon layer. First a djembe, then his guitar, his fascination for blending sounds of instruments began. With these unique sounds, he set off to the Eumundi Markets to do some busking. He was one of the first musicians to entertain the crowds that flock there. The reaction was unbelievable, he left his listeners gobsmacked and wanting more. Matts' diversity of talent continued when both bands he played in produced award winning albums - the first Soul Prism followed by Tribal Trance. His passion for music has brought him to a level where he and his music are in constant demand, not only for gigs, but for documentaries, scores for films, musicals, promotional work, computer games, TV commercials, dance studios, and corporate entertainment. A natural gifted musician, the soul of Matts work lies in the hypnotic mood of all his work. You can't stand still when Matt performs, you simply have to move. MATT JAMES - LIVE AT AUSTRALIA ZOO A instrumental journey of cultural fusion. Matt's multi-instrumental talents shine through as he entertains you with his musical combinations of didgeridoos, drums, guitars, keyboards, harps and flutes. Recorded live at Australia Zoo, it is hard to imagine it is Matt-playing live.
