"Lester has a full commanding voice with a lot of dynamic and emotional range, bringing the requisite strength to an up tempo original like 'One Way Track', then, turning more ornamental to bring out the nuances of a slower song like Paul Kennerly's 'First In Line'." - Bluegrass Unlimited "The genre that Kentuckian Bill Monroe founded in the 1930s may not have the cachet that high-processed pop music enjoys these days but, if it did, Jenny Lester would be hailed as an emerging Celine Dion." - Vancouver Province "Talented and beautiful songstress . . . a clear, pure and powerful voice that is unique to her . . . she can truly sing from her heart." - Bluegrass Canada "Jenny Lester is just great!" - Dugg Simpson, artistic director, Vancouver Folk Festival "Top Canadian act . . . top-notch album" - The National Post "Jenny Lester is one of Canada's best bluegrass artists and a singer who, like Alison Krauss, deserves to be a household name beyond the bluegrass community." - Bruce Pollock (CJSW, Calgary) "Outstanding. Jenny's vocals would make an angel weep with joy!" - Alice Hill (WELY, MN) "Her stage presence is A-1." - Joe Cloud (KSER, WA) "She is outstanding." - Bob Newton (WHDM, TN) "Jenny Lester offers up a no-nonsense style of music that is a pleasure to listen to." - Dan Alloway (KTEP, TX) "I love her performance. I would drive along way to see her live." - Joe Colvin (WYSO, OH) "Jenny has a voice that's a bluegrass natural." - Bill Knowlton (WCNY/WUNY/WJNY, NY) "The best Canada has." - Steve Pritchard (CKLN, ON) "I like her vocal sincerity." - Dave Rousseau (KWRD, TX) "The best bluegrass I have heard from outside the US." -
