KBW Kevin Blake Weldon Born and raised in Lufkin, Texas, Kevin Blake Weldon grew up hunting, fishing and playing baseball. While sitting around a camp fire strumming his guitar and making up lyrics, his friends urged him to share his God given talent with others; thus, the BADBOB Jimmy creation. Kevin has found success as a country entertainer and is also a prolific songwriter. His upcoming works are aimed at all outdoor sports enthusiasts. His latest project, BADBOB Jimmy: POSTED PLACES is the creative work of which he is most excited and proud. It is a must-have for hunters and non-hunters alike. His redneck deer hunting humor features skits, original songs and parodies such as "I Hunt Deer in Posted Places" (Friends in Low Places), "I Love This Park" (I Love This Bar), "I Aint No Member of No Hunting' Club" (I'm a Member of a Country Club), "Bucky The Bionic Buck" and many others! While his songs make light of hunting in posted places, and spotlighting, it is important to note that in the songs Jimmy is caught and punished for his illegal activities. The events and characters are fictional; so, any similarity to you or anyone you know is PURELY coincidental. Kevin has found a unique niche with his experiences in the outdoors and with the country music industry. BADBOB Jimmy is destined to be a hit. Remember, this is comedy, but please, always abide by all hunting and fishing laws and regulations. "Absolutely hilarious." has been the basis for him to be included as the featured entertainer at this years induction ceremony for Legends of the Outdoors Hall of Fame. This event was established to recognize outdoor sportsmen and sportswomen who, through their I almost ran off the road while listening to the BADBOB and Jimmy CD by Kevin Weldon. I was laughing so hard that I could hardly drive. There should be a disclaimer on the cover of the CD about Kevin not being responsible for accidents caused while driving and laughing hysterically. Kevin's light hearted portrayal of bad hunters is refreshingly funny all the while reminding us that being a slob hunter is in reality, as dumb as it sounds. I bought one of your CDs this past Saturday at the want to be hunting and fishing show in Lafayette, LA. I have been letting all my hunting partners listen to it after I got back to work, and they all love it. They all say the same thing; the perfect music for the camp. We even have a very good friend of ours who just so happens to be a game warden, and he loves it! He says that this is how he wants to be when he grows up. GOOD HUMORED.
