CLASSICAL: Traditional, CLASSICAL: Early Music Details: This CD is for Digital Distribution only! IN THESE HECTIC TIMES, PEOPLE NEED TO TAKE TIME OUT TO RELAX. OUR AIM IS TO CREATE, USING REAL INSTRUMENTS, A SOOTHING ALTERNATIVE TO ELECTRONIC AMBIENT MUSIC. Ann Cecil and David Cundy have performed together since 1985 when their exquisite music became a feature of the Victorian Arts Centre. As word spread, demand for their appearance at corporate, social and arts events grew rapidly. Ann Cecil is a highly acclaimed and respected flautist who as soloist, orchestral member or orchestral leader has worked on Scrooge, Phantom of the Opera, Les Miserables, Aspects of Love, The King and I and has toured Japan with Sarah Brightman and Australia with Michael Crawford. A recipient of nine major several prestigious scholarships, Ann holds an honors degree in flute from the University of Melbourne. In September 1993, Ann studied in New York with the legendary Julius Baker whose vastly different approach to the flute has made a rich addition to her own superb technique. In her spare time Ann addressed teenagers as a motivational speaker. Perhaps one of Melbournes most talented and versatile musicians, David Cundy has had a passionate involvement in music since his early childhood - traveling, performing and studying in Europe and the United States. Renowned for his extraordinary ability to improvise, he has played harp and piano in countless concerts and musical, conducted, sung in many choirs, and arranged and typeset music for many major musical organizations. David is also a computer music consultant and is the International correspondent for the World Harp Congress. People who are interested in should consider this download.
