Growing up in the city of Detroit, the eldest of 9 musically gifted and talented children, she still holds on to the principles taught to her by her Parents, Annette Bates and The Late Alonzo Bates Jr. Her parents, who sang as well, were very instrumental in allowing La June to travel around the world at a very young age and sing praises unto God. In her teen years, she was very involved in the City of Detroit's Performing Arts program which was headed by Veteran Performing Artist Kim Weston along with Teddy Harris Jazz Extraordinair. La June was also a part of several groups and choirs around the city such as The Jr Volinaires, which her uncle was an original part of the Legendary Original Volinaires, The Christian Jubilees, and a group that consisted of all her siblings called " Gifted". La June's Strong commitment to using her Gift exclusively for God has placed her where she is today, and allowed her to keep the anointing God has placed on her life. Her writing and vocal gifts are next to none. She believes that music is a spiritual weapon, which can be utilized for Deliverance, Encouragement, Guidance and Direction. She is committed to give to her audiences what God gives to her, the same way he gives it to her. This includes the lyrics as well as the music. La June expresses that each instrument has a job to do. Therefore, the Lyrics and Music must work as a team to accomplish its task. As La June shared her gift with those locked up behind prison bars, and those that were confined to nursing homes, she was inspired to release her first debut CD entitled Changes. Her prayer is that God will minister to those that will listen, through the ministry of Music and Song.
