This is the band that toured and recorded with Johnny Paycheck in the late 70's and early 80's. Born in Oconomowoc, Wisconsin in 1953, PT discovered the harmonica at age 19 and quickly started to develop his own style of playing. His solo release in 1978, PT Gazell "Pace Yourself", continues to stand the test of time. His innovative work with the West Texas Music Company, (Johnny Paycheck's working band) from 1977 to 1980 opened up new musical possibilities for PT. His ability as a soloist and an ensemble member of the band garnered him both critical and popular acclaim and made him one of the most sought after session players in the country. After his successful stint with Paycheck, including three gold records, PT went on to play with a long list of artists including Jerry Douglas, Jessie Winchester, Mel McDaniel and many more... FROM RANDY SINGER: Chromatic harmonica Jazz great. PT was instrumental in my harmonica playing during the release of "Pace Yourself". I studied his solos and learned a lot about how to fit a harmonica into a musical pastiche besides just taking a solo. I owe him a debt of gratitude. I absolutely consider his seminal work of "Pace Yourself" to be a must have for any diatonic harmonica player.
