KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music, KIDS/FAMILY: Kid Friendly Details: Originally from Montreal, Canada. Diana Rae is an award-winning singer/songwriter whose works have appeared on Gold, Platinum and Grammy-winning albums, recorded by many noted artists including Reba McEntire, Dolly Parton, Confederate Railroad, Aaron Neville Kathie Lee Gifford and Disney's The Little Mermaid. In the Family Music market, Diana's Christmas Album, A Noel Nighty Night (a collection of all-original Christmas songs and lullabies,) has garnered three national awards to date: The 1999 NAPPA Gold Award, The Parent's Guide to Children's Media "Classic" Award and The Parents'Choice Award. Diana was also honored with an invitation to perform A Noel Nighty Night at The White House. She's received accolades from Rosie O'Donnell, Barbara Bush, Kathie Lee Gifford, educators, authors, publishers, parents and kids! She was the vocalist and co-writer on the Grammy-nominated Rock-a-bye II collection, and she wrote the opening and closing themes for the Rock'n Tots Cafe video series. Her "character voices" are heard in many audio book stories, and two PBS shows, The Noddy Shoppe and Wish-a-roo Park. Her community fund raising efforts have earned special recognition from Toys for Tots, Pull-Tight Community Theatre and The Dee Dee Wallace Foundation. Diana has been delighting parents and children alike with her Concerts and Storytelling at a variety of venues ranging from the concert stage (opening for the Oak Ridge Boys), to small theaters, elementary schools, libraries, art historic venues, corporate events, hometown holiday celebrations and The Opryland Hotel Celebrity Storytelling Series. Diana is also a gifted voice actress with many national and regional radio and television commercials to her credit. Many of you may have awakened to the sound of Diana's voice reminding you that the "Best part of waking up is Folgers in your cup!"
