hard core hip hop cult music 13 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop Details: Woodpile formed December 13 2002. They gained immediate attention in their home town of Phoenix with unstoppable, in your face live performances, that leave fans demanding more and club owners calculating the dollars earned in spite of the damage delivered. Over the past two years Woodpile has rapidly become Arizona's largest and most controversial rap group. Pioneering the way for aggravated circus lounge trunk funk; the sound now known as cult music. Woodpile displays an uncanny resemblance to a live rock show, with energetic bouncing stage antics and mosh pits to boot. The woods assemble together like a well oiled gun, and the music becomes a hollow tip bullet hitting its target dead center exploding onto the scene. The trigger has been pulled with the release of their debut LP, "The Streets Will Never be the Same". Woodpile writes, records, mixes, and masters all there own music. All together a self contained unit, that's locked, loaded, and ready to pop shots at the industry
