DOWNLOAD HERE

Fun, singable songs about the environment for children in a wide variety of musical styles including pop, rock, folk, and world music. 18 MP3 Songs in this album (48:47) ! Related styles: KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Pop, KIDS/FAMILY: Educational Details: The Carnival of Life Songs are fun, sometimes quirky, singable songs for children about a variety of environmental issues: "16 Bears" talks about loss of habitat, "ABC It's A Beautiful World" and "The Water Comes Down," encourages care for our world, "Through the Woods," and "Friendly Lunch," are about litter. Children will enjoy singing these songs over and over again and acting them out as they sing. Originally produced in 1991, these songs have stood the test of time and have been enjoyed by children across North America. People who have worn out their cassette tapes (remember those?) keep requesting the CD! The composer, Allan Crossley is an educator, author of the "Joe Rock and Friends" series of interactive books, composer of hundreds of songs and many musicals, including "Rats, A Musical About Our Environment," that has been performed in schools in North America, Europe, and Asia.
