People who are interested in mm Efterklang Martyn Bennet should consider this download. Details: 'The Extraordinary Little Cough' is the result of a childhood spent touring around Scotlands highland games circuit as a solo piper, and years of interest in exploring different sounds. The tracks are all based around traditional Scottish and Irish bagpipe tunes (with one exception) and try to use those melodies and the stories associated with them to create something new - using electronics, samples and instruments not commonly heard in traditional music.
