The Pooja of Mahashivarathri, performed by Professor Thiagarajan and Sanskrit scholars. 13 MP3 Songs
WORLD: Asian, WORLD: World Traditions Details: During the month of Phalgun, i.e February-March, on the 14th night of the new moon, millions of devottes of Lord Shiva celebrate the holiest night of the year, Mahashivarathri. Observed both as a discipline and also as a festival, devotees observe this auspicious occasion by keeping a strict fast and staying awake throughout night. They venerate the Lord through meditation and also by chanting his name, singing his praises, intoning "Shri Rudram" and by pouring holy water on the Shiva Linda. (Abhisheka) Once in Mount Kailas, Parvati asked Shiva, "O Venerable Lord! Which of the many rituals observed in Thy hour doth please Thee most?" To this, the Lord replied, "It is Shivarathri" It is believed that worshipping Shiva on this day bestows prosperity, inner peace and power that all human beings aspire to attain in their path to ultimate salvation. To facilitate the devotees who desire to perform the rituals on Shivarathri, Dr. R. Thiagarajan, Professor Head of the P.G. Research Dept. of Sanskrit, Presidency College, Chennai along with his team of Vedic pundits, Chandramoulee, Karthik, and Sriram, have rendered the audio verison of the Pooja performed on Mahashivarathri. Mr. Gurunath has provided the musical support under the Guidance of the Music Director Mr. S. Venkatesh. Searches:maha shivaratri abhishekam audio download
