

Mp3 D.one - Second Nature

DOWNLOAD HERE

hip-hop, lyrical, rap, mainstream, underground, substance 13 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: East Coast, HIP HOP/RAP: Rap Details: While signed to the NY/Boston based underground label Greede Records from 2002-2003, D.One performed at major venues around the New England area including the Paradise, Middleeast, Big Easy and more. The label was invited to perform live on Bostons infamous WERS 88.9 during their live music week that boasted performances from underground and national artists. D.One received consistent spins on the station throughout the year. He has also managed to capture a unique audience in the world of extreme sports. In 2003, three of his songs were featured on Whiplash T.V (Jalbert Productions). The show was aired nationally on NBC, ABC, ESPN 1, 2, NESN. In 2004 D.One made exclusive songs for two major streetbike DVDs; One for the legendary Drew Stones (producer of the MTV Truelife: I live to Ride) Urban Street Bike Warriors. In 2004 he released his 12 track debut solo album Dvisione, which sold over 5,000 copies nationwide. For the first time, D.Ones tracks from the album received commercial radio play on stations such as Bostons JAMN 94.5 with Geespin and WFNX 91.2/107.1. The album was a tremendous stepping-stone into the industry, and earned D.One respect among hip-hop legends. In 2005-2006 he collaborated on songs with Grammy nominated artist AZ (Nas Illmatic), Royce da 59 (Eminem Slim Shady LP), Krumb Snatcha (Gangstarr Foundation), Proof (of D12), and Canibus. D.One recently moved into the L.A. area, and has completed his new project Second Nature.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: