A global charm of hypnotic spacious vocal melodies interwoven by a sensation of world modern instruments in one universal language of music. Tribal drums indian flutes celtic pipes and classical strings, a sample listen is highly recommended. 10 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Contemporary, WORLD: World Fusion Details: A Global charm of spacious vocal melodies interwoven by a sensation of world modern instruments, in one universal language of music by Inia (female solo artist) I recorded the vocals 6 times in all harmonies in a phonetical style and mixed them in a local recording studio working with engineers Pete Ware producer classical composer Joseph Wade who wrote Water Whispers We then added world modern instruments tribal drums, celtic pipes some classical strings and some bases. It was deep meaningful to me. The music came to me sometimes in my dreams at 4 am in the morning I would have to rush downstairs record the sounds I could hear on a tape machine so that I wouldnt forget it the next day. A medium said to me. This is your past lives Because there are pagan, African, Indian, Greek Italian influences here. I didn't realise it to much later what she meant. The best write up I ever had was by a Magazine in Holland SPIELGEL BEELD magazine. by Don Van Der Steen; he wrote; The Best I save for last. What a goose-bomb CD!! Beautiful Glowing, honest, mystic and sensitive. With these four words you could describe this disc. And the basses! its great to feel. She has written and composed it all by herself. With Celtic, Indian, African and Native American influences. Once in a while, something magnificent surfaces. that attracts your attention, and then it appears to be a glistening. You dont understand a word, but it is all about the vocals. The voice here is an additional instrument. It has exactly that, what only your feelings knows. And it connects to that! Love at first hearing. Great! it is to get in..... Wildly good. This CD earns g..., what p.....! Favourite songs? Yes I have them, but I Wont tell! Experience them for yourself and let your mouth fall open by the surprise of it. No soft and tranquil music, but songs where the different spheres jump off. I wanna bet that once you brought the CD you play it at least 3 times. I will sit and listen to it the the sixty sixtieth time now. Distributed Mirakels Import Schagen.
