A well known musical producer named Dmitriy Pluzhnikov met a talented girl from Canada, named EORI. She wrote 3 songs that impressed Dmitriy very much. Because of this, Dmitriy, EORI, and Julia Yelkina (A choreographer) decided to create a cheerful pop group, which would sing the songs written by EORI. Isabelle Yapi and Anastacia Milova are both performers in the group, and attend Musical Colleges in Moscow. The first song entitled "LA LA LA" was finished in May, of 2005. This song was written from personal experiences, after the writer EORI left a guy, and experienced the words in the song. In June, the group made a new video: A criminal story, in which the girls get rid of dishonest, tough guys, while traveling towards uncertainty. The video was directed by Julia Yelkina, and was shot in Crimea (Ukraine, Sevastopol.) In September of 2005, the producers of the popular Russian production group "Blestyaschiye" became interested in our band, and in October of the same year, Dmitriy Pluzhnikov signed a contract with the producing company. As a result of this event, the song "LA LA LA" appeared on popular radio stations, television channels, on a New Year's television show, and was performed at concerts by bigger stars of the Russian show business scene. During this time, new songs have been prepared, and we plan to continue the history which we began in the first video. The debut song "LA LA LA" becomes popular in Russia.
