All my life I wanted to make my living making music. That is now a reality. The best thing that ever happened to me was losing my day gig four years ago. As I live in a small town, without any industry, I was forced to either try to make it as a musician, or go back to city life. For the last four years I have been playing piano and selling my discs at Chic's Antiques here in Floyd, VA. The town of Floyd and Floyd County are very supportive of local artists. Churches, Restaurants and concert venues have had me in to play. Most of my day is spent teaching piano, cello and guitar, recording at home and selling my CD's at Chic's Antiques. My music has been favorably compared to what you would hear on the Windham Hill or Narada labels (Jim Brickman, George Winston, Liz Story etc) Like Jim Brickman or Michael Gettel, I also like to record modern arrangements of old hymns. I have 9 homemade CD's that are available here in Floyd at Chic's Antiques, please check my Electronic Press Kit at sonicbids.com/patmathews
