FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS Q: How long have you been playing piano? A: I started playing keyboard when I was 16 years old. I played in vaarious rock bands until I was in my mid-twenties, and then switched to the piano. Q: Where did you study/learn? A: I never formally studied the piano, but did take a few classes in college. Basically I'm self taught. Q: How are your songs inspired? A: Most of my ideas for songs come to me when I'm hiking. Ultimately, my music in inspired by a relationship with God. It's when I'm in the wilderness, away from the noise and distraction of modern life, that I can truly quiet my mind and tune into his influence. The intensity and overwhelming beauty of a trek through the back-country can also generate very powerful emotions. It's these feelings try to express through music. Q: How can I get the sheet music to your songs? A: Some of my songs ar available for download on my web site. Q: Where do you record your CDs? A: Currently, I record at Stu Goldberg Studios in Penticton, BC, Canada. I use a Yamaha C7 piano (a 7 foot concert grand). Q: Do you do concerts? A: Yes! I do everything from 50 seat "living room" concerts to 500 seat venues. Sign up for my mailing list at Rockfluenceand I'll let you know when and where. Q: Did anyone ever tell you you sound like Yanni? A: Nope. You're the first.
