Stretches of imagination seldom seen anywhere ... complex songwriting and big wall-of-sound harmonies

6 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, FOLK: Modern Folk Details: The group met at an open mike at The Jahva House in Ellicott City, MD where they quickly identified the chemistry they shared, and started singing on each other's songs. They came up with the name "We're About 9," on the spot when they needed a name to go by on a particular night at the open mic, and for some reason, the name (a joke about their maturity) stuck. The band is noted for the witty lyrics of their original songs and for their moving vocal harmonies. Their songs are often crafted to tell stories from unexpected perspectives (including those of inanimate objects such as that of a bottle of port wine, or a parking space), or capture the emotion of significant life transitions (such as leaving a lover who has just proposed to you). -- Wikipedia
