Road trips and campfires make up strong childhood memories and they were always accompanied by song. Between my parents, brother and grandparents, we sung all the time. My grandfather was a park ranger-naturalist at Yosemite and Lassen National Parks in the 1930s, 1940s and 1950s. Not only did my grandfather take campers on nature hikes, he led campfires and taught songs, played the banjo and violin, so he passed down many of his camp favorites, including Aint Gonna Rain No More, 1000 Legged Worm, You Are My Sunshine, Oh Susanna, The Old Family Toothbrush. I decided to make this record to encourage the family to get together and sing in the car and hopefully create a soundtrack for vacations. Rock Me Baby Records has won the Parents Choice Gold Award for Lullaby Themes for Sleepy Dreams, the Oppenheim Toy Portfolio Platinum Gold Awards and the Parents Choice recommended for Classic Nursery Rhymes, the iParenting Oppenheim Gold Award for Childrens Songs, A Collection of Childhood Favorites and the iParenting Award for Classical Baby. Tallmans CDs have also been recommended in Parenting, Baby Talk, Fit Pregnancy, Child and other National Publications. Singer Susie Tallman graduated UCLA with a BA in voice performance. preparing her to present these travel, camp and car songs. Susie currently lives in Albuquerque, New Mexico with her husband and daughter, baby Tessa.
